PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING

A

SYSTEM

OF

ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY,

HUMAN AND COMPARATIVE.

IN TWO VOLUMES QUARTO.

BY

BUSICK HARWOOD, M.D. F.R.S. AND S.A.

PROFESSOR OF ANATOMY IN THE UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

In which the Structure of the Human Body, and of all the different CLASSES of Animals, will be inveſtigated; their ſeveral Organs compared with the correſponding Parts in the Human Species; and their various Functions more fully explained than has hitherto been attempted by Analogy.

THE above Work will be printed at the Expence of the Univerſity, and the Syndics of the Univerſity Preſs will fix the Price of it upon Publication.—But as a great Number of very expenſive Plates will be requiſite for the Illuſtration of the various Subjects upon which it muſt neceſſarily treat, the Author ſolicits a Subſcription of Two Guineas for the Engravings, Half to be paid at the Time of ſubſcribing, and the Remainder upon the Delivery of the laſt Volume.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are received by Meſſrs. WHITE, Fleet Street; Mr. WALTER, Charing Croſs, London; Meſſrs. J. & J. MERRILL, and Mr. LUNN, Cambridge; Mr. J. COOKE, Oxford; Mrs. DUNCAN, Edinburgh; Mr. HORDEN, Peterborough; and Mrs. JENKINSON, Huntingdon.

The Impreſſions will be delivered to the Subſcribers according to the Date of their Subſcriptions; and the Price of the Engravings to Nonſubſcribers will be doubled.
